

WANTED: NEW BOARD MEMBERS

ABBEY ARTS is dedicated to building community through arts and culture.

ABBEY ARTS is a cultural incubator.

We create opportunities and places to bring artists and audiences together. We create environments for artists and performers to grow and develop their craft. We help others to do good by providing affordable and accessible community meeting and performance spaces for Seattle non-profit, arts, and community groups at our home venue, the Fremont Abbey Arts Center.

WE NEED YOUR HELP. We are currently seeking two new people to join our board of directors to help guide the continuation and expansion of our work. We aim to help Seattle be a more creative place and would love for you to join us.

If you are interested, please email Deborah Ferguson our board Chair: board@fremontabbey.org

Thank you for your time and consideration.

OUR MISSION is to curate welcoming arts & cultural experiences where people of all ages and incomes can explore and grow.

Abbey Arts focuses on local music, contemporary dance, interactive visual art, spoken word, and some culinary arts. Formats include multi-arts collaborative performances like The Round, intimate close-up concerts, new dance performances with live music, community gatherings like The Moth storytelling event, dance classes, plus a variety of workshops and artistic life celebrations. On average, attendance at our various programs & events reaches 20,000 to 30,000 per year.

Artwerks DBA Fremont Abbey Arts is a nonprofit 501(c)3 public charity, non-religious, established 2005.

For more information:
www.fremontabbey.org/about

www.fremontabbey.org/events/about-events/

